

YSU Press Day TCJA

2008

Adviser of the Year Award

2008

(FORM SP1)

Any member of a school community may nominate an adviser for this special award meant to recognize the work of advisers. Typically, it is expected that students who work with the adviser will make a nomination. However, other members of the school community may wish to take part in the nominations. More than one adviser may be recognized. This contest is open to advisers of all high-school media. Up to three letters supporting the adviser's nomination may be submitted; please attach them to this form. Don't forget the 500-word essay (see below).

PLEASE TYPE OR PRINT LEGIBLY

Adviser's Name: _____

School Name: _____

Media Organization Name: _____

Is the media organization: curricular extracurricular teen section other _____

Number of student staff: _____

Number of professional staff/advisers: _____

Final content/editorial decisions are made by: students adviser administrator

Annual operating budget _____

How is your organization funded? _____

List professional journalism-related credentials of adviser(s):

1. Below, give three main reasons why this adviser deserves the Adviser of the Year Award.

Reason 1: _____

Reason 2: _____

Reason 3: _____

2. Attach a 500-word, typed essay to the form explaining why you feel this adviser deserves the Adviser of the Year Award. You may use the above reasons as your main points, adding any other information that you feel is relevant and should be considered important by the judges.

Entries must be postmarked by March 28 to be considered for awards.