

YSU Press Day TCJA

2008

Best Yearbook Theme Contest

2008

Registration

(FORM Y2)

Judging categories will be determined based on information provided below.

This sheet goes directly to the judges and will give them a complete picture of your publication.

PLEASE TYPE OR PRINT LEGIBLY

School Name: _____

Yearbook Name: _____

Is the yearbook: curricular extracurricular other _____

Number of yearbook student staff: _____

Number of yearbook professional staff/advisers: _____

Final editorial decisions are made by: students adviser administrator

Circulation (number of yearbooks printed): _____

Annual operating budget _____

How is your publication funded? _____

List professional journalism-related credentials of adviser(s):

If you have any special production problems, please list them here. _____

Other comments for consideration (printing facilities, darkroom facilities, etc.): _____

Write a 200-500 word essay explaining the theme of your yearbook for the 2007-2008 academic year. In this essay include information about the way in which you will use the theme throughout the book, the relevance the theme has to your high school, and the way the theme will be incorporated in design and imaging. Attach your essay to this form.

It is possible for no winners to be chosen in a category. In addition, the Press Day board requests a narrative outlining any unique problems faced, including prior review.

Entries must be postmarked by March 28 to be considered for awards.